

Spiritual Growth Evaluation

It is certainly true that the experience of spiritual growth and discipleship is a process. This process takes time, involves many steps, and for most, is somewhat erratic, including stops along the way to catch one's breath. The Bible tells us that "The Good Shepherd knows His sheep."

Additionally, Peter writes that church leaders are to "Shepherd the flock of God." To do our job and help you along your spiritual journey, we must know our sheep just like Jesus does. To enable us to do this, would you please thoughtfully complete the following checklist. Your response will be held in strict confidence. Thank you for helping us to be the best shepherds we can be.
